EXCALIBUR '76

Sue -
It has been great knowing you these past two years! Just think two down, two to go, we are half way through. To bad we didn't sit next to each other in any classes this year, so we could gossip like last year, but we still had good old tramp. Well have fun this summer. (I know you will with Micheal)
See you next year when we are kitchen Juniors.
Love
Maureen
Clarke "78"

Sue,
It has been a really good year for me in some ways or another, I hope you had fun. It was fun having you in biology, and even just having you around was fun. Hope to see you next year and we can go and cruise the streets. Have a great summer and don't go to to many partics.
Love
Louis

Sue,
I'm glad you got to know Dave. I hope you have a great summer, See ya next year
Love, Barrie

Sue,
The girl who I Always wanted to take out BUT Didn't Stoood in my MIND
Love Joe

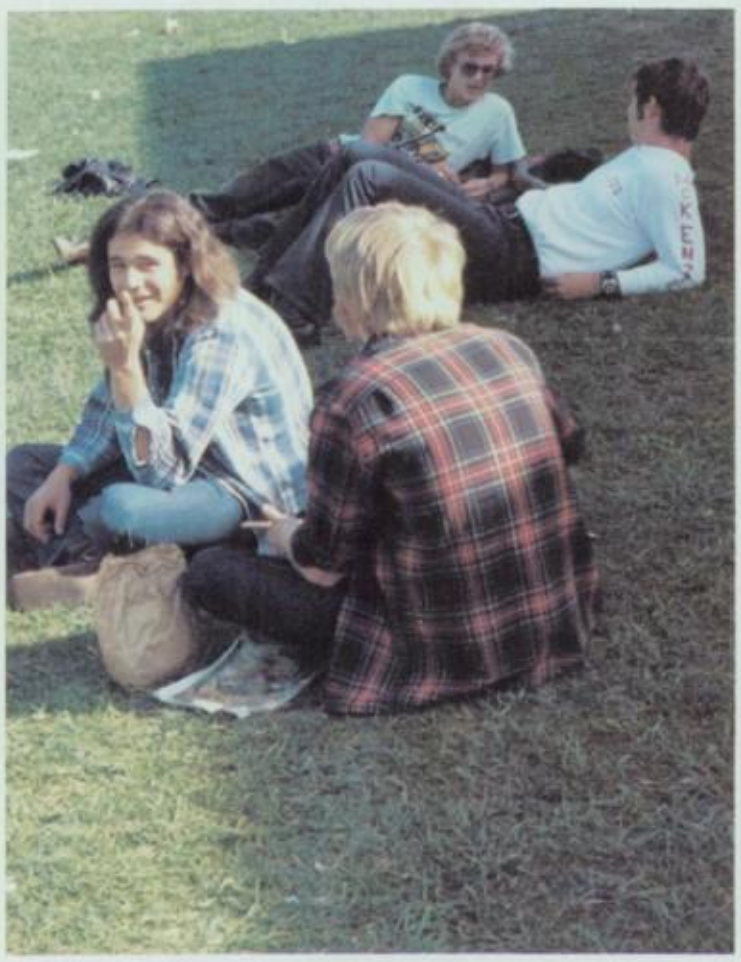
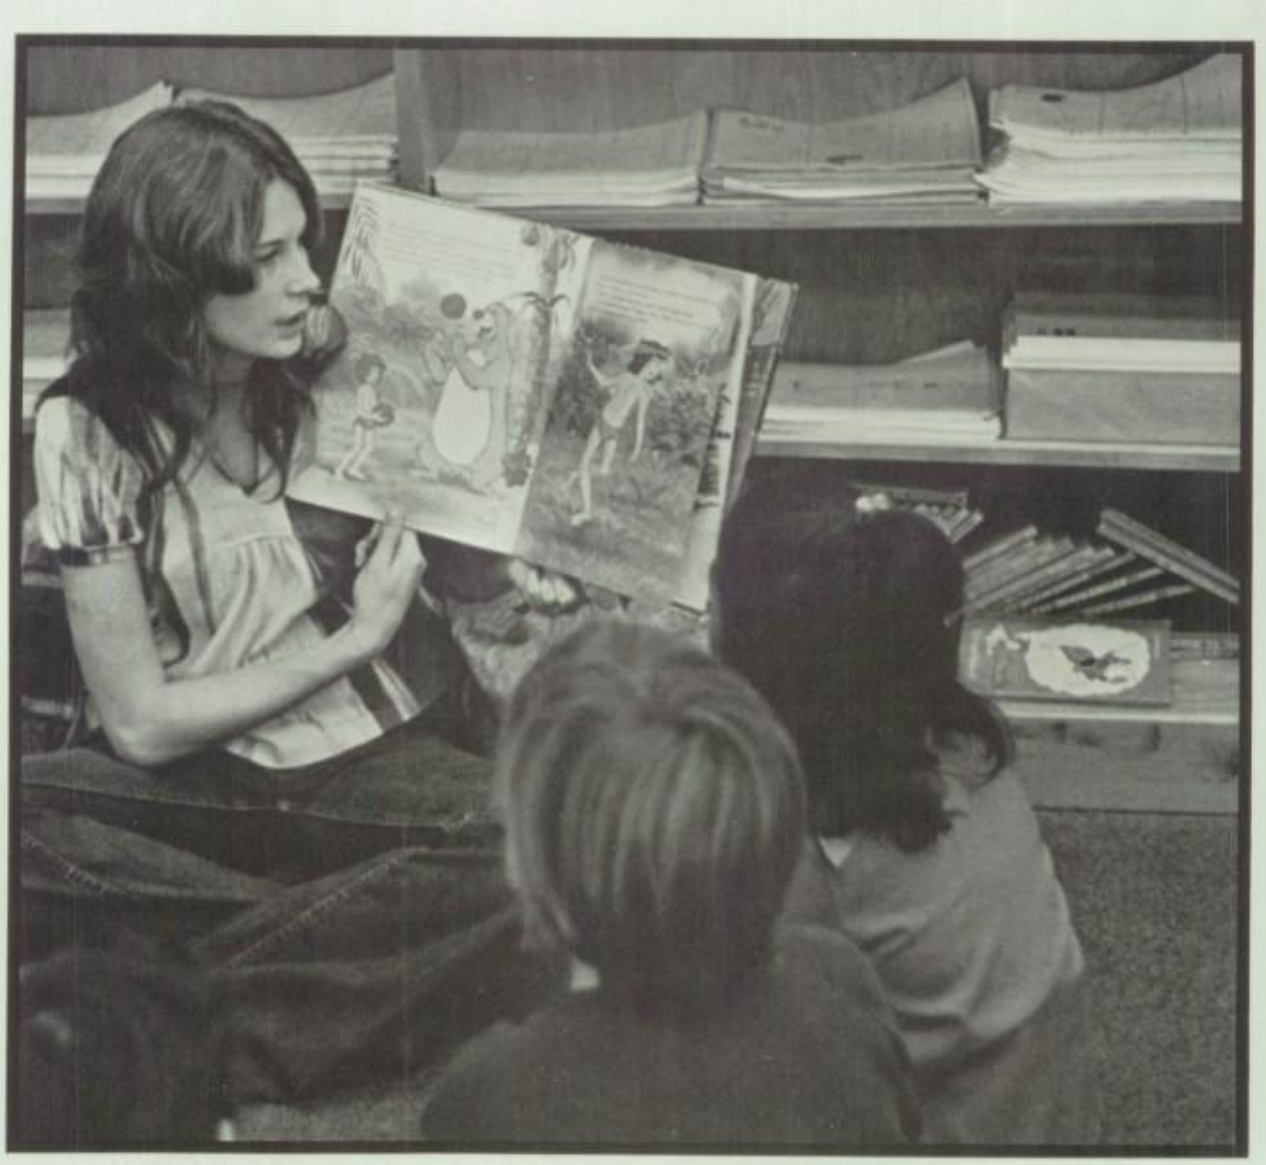
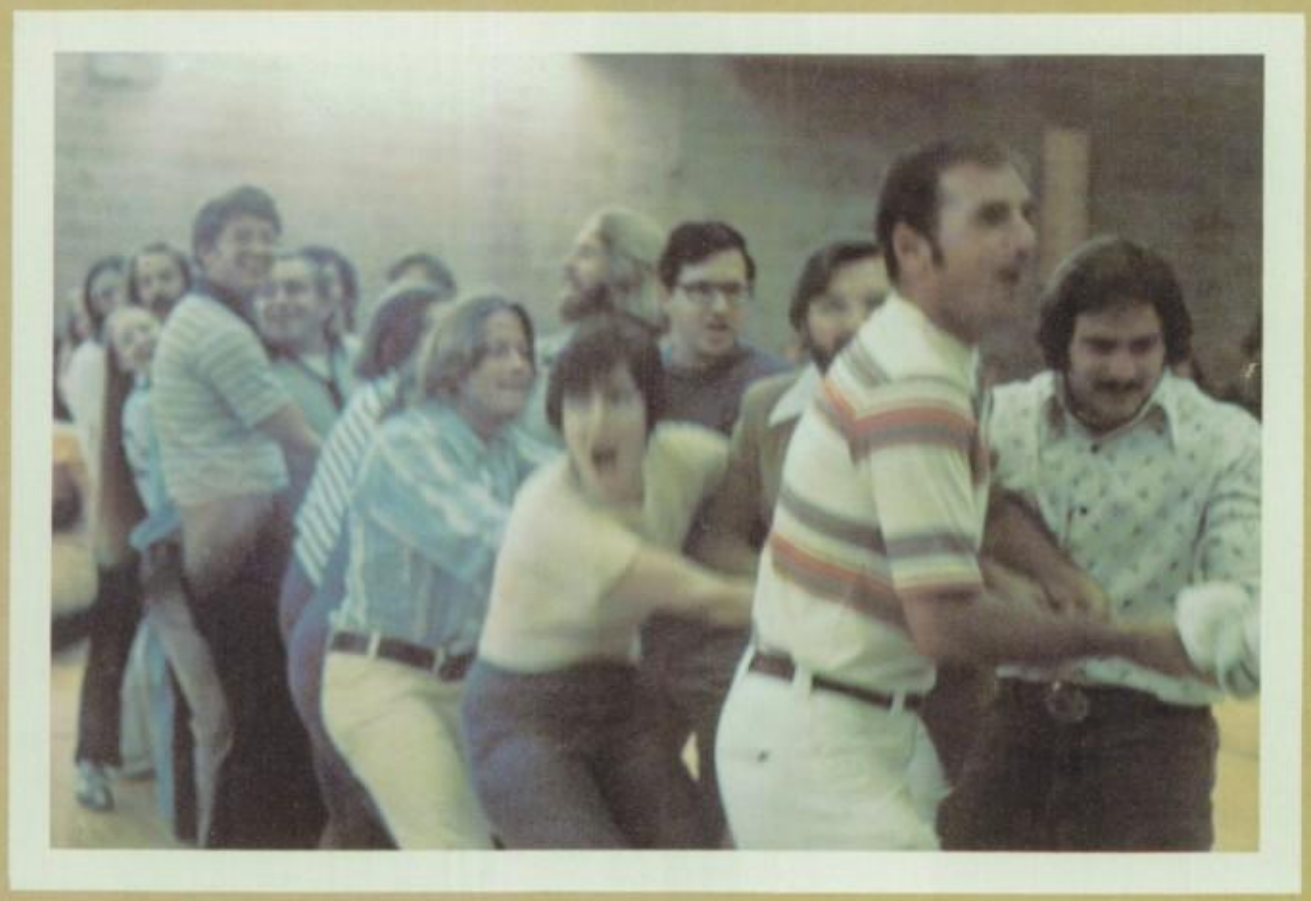
Alone we find solitude—
Together we find love



BLAST OFF



To teach is also to learn.



By finding things
within yourself,

Only then will you be able to share them with others.

A child educated only at school is an uneducated child.

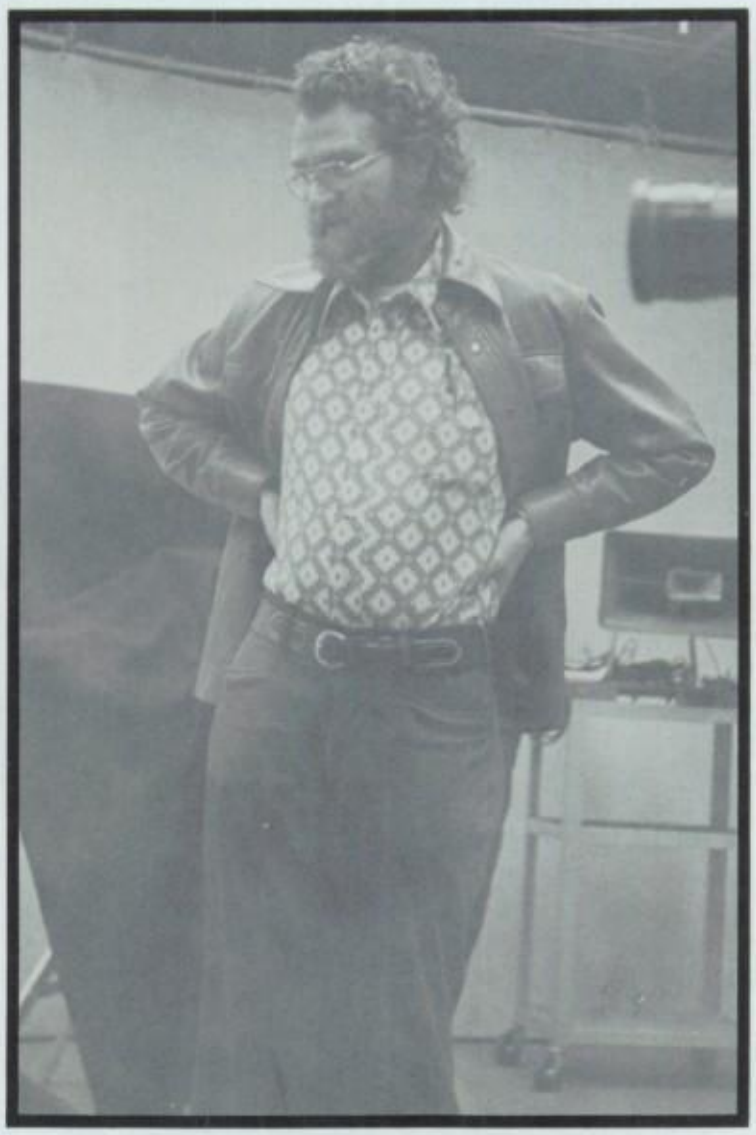
Teachers open the door.
You enter by yourself.



To see a world
in a grain of sand,
And heaven
in a wildflower,
To hold Infinity
in the palm of your hand,
And Eternity
in an hour.

William Blake

Will we see the day when, again, nature becomes the teacher of man?

Nothing is more wondrous than a human being. . .

. . . when he begins to discover himself.

I hope the day will be a lighter highway,
For friends are found on every road.
Can you ever think of any better way,
For the lost and weary travelers to go?

Dear Jow'lla
Good Friends
We've Have had
Some GREAT TIMES!
I like after American party
Studies. And at your party when what's her name was so there. We've talk to do alot to keep our trouble we're already caused because we can't get out of shape this summer going be be Great exspecially when my parent leave. Right on! Party time!
some-one read it but anymore Because if our good time & talk that remember, all
I know you will and Good luck in touch Michael you will ok. Keep with not remember & stay are cute together but Caroline ok! I'll want to be in your

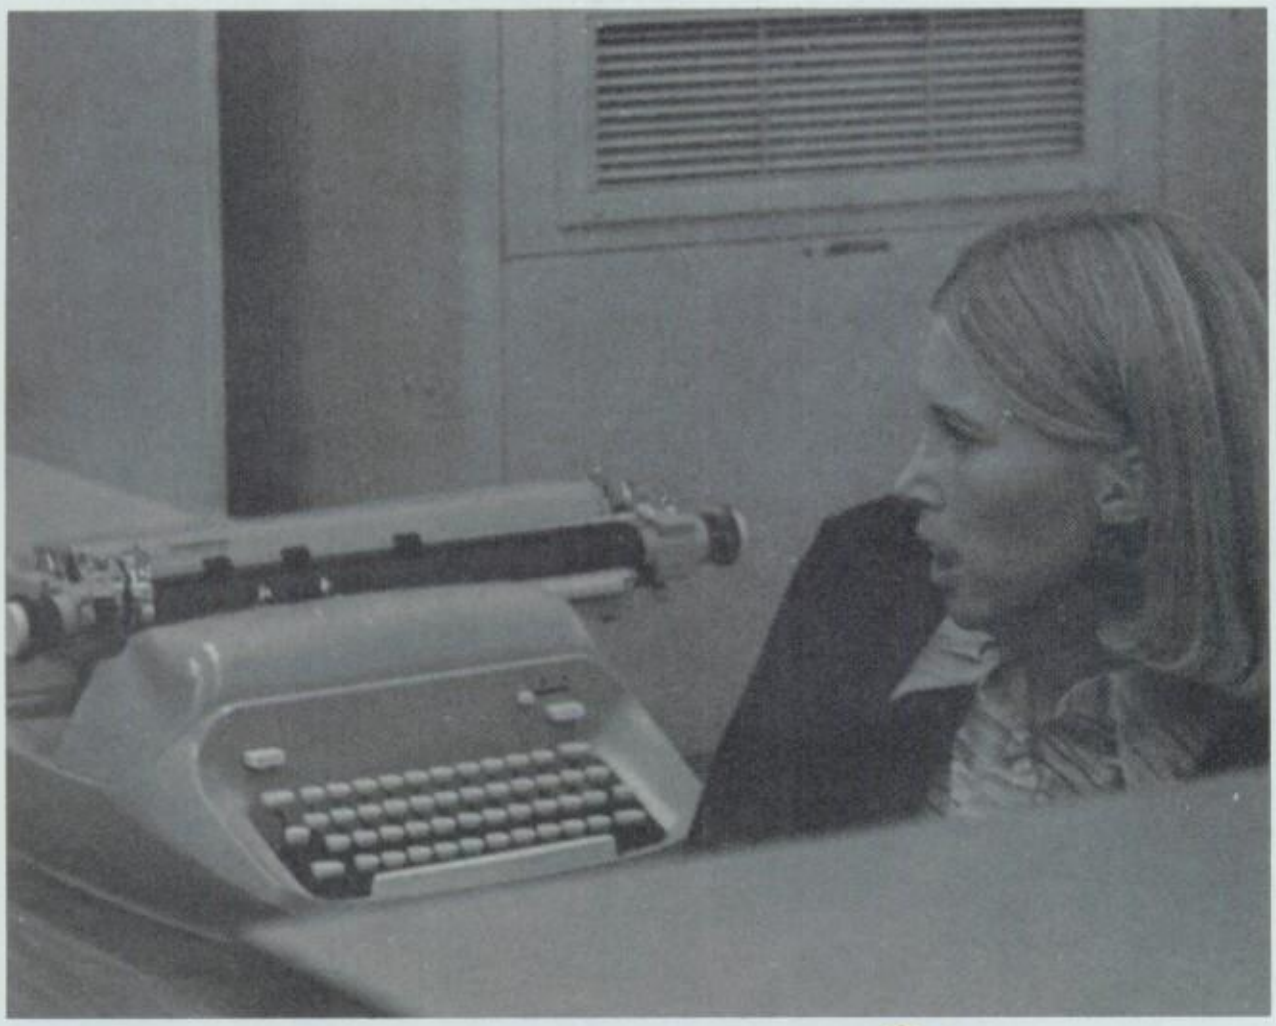
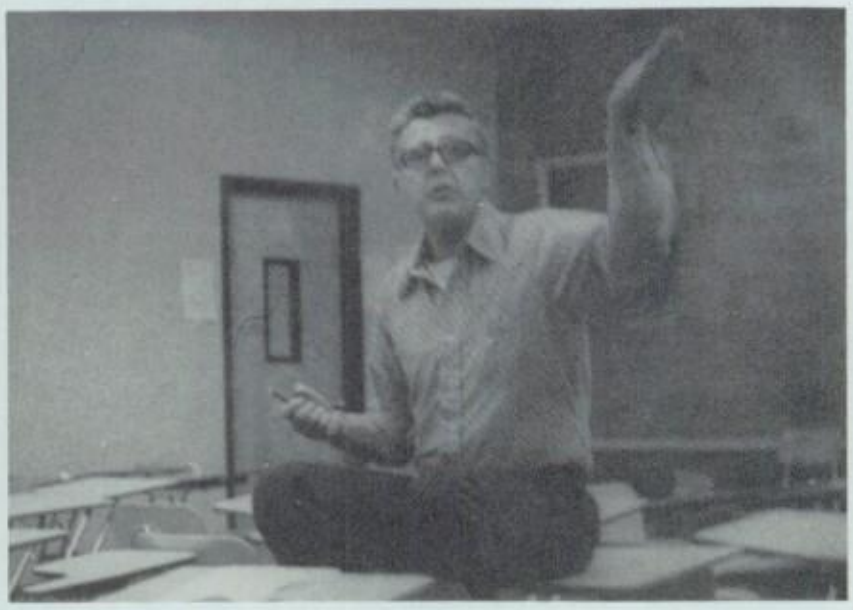
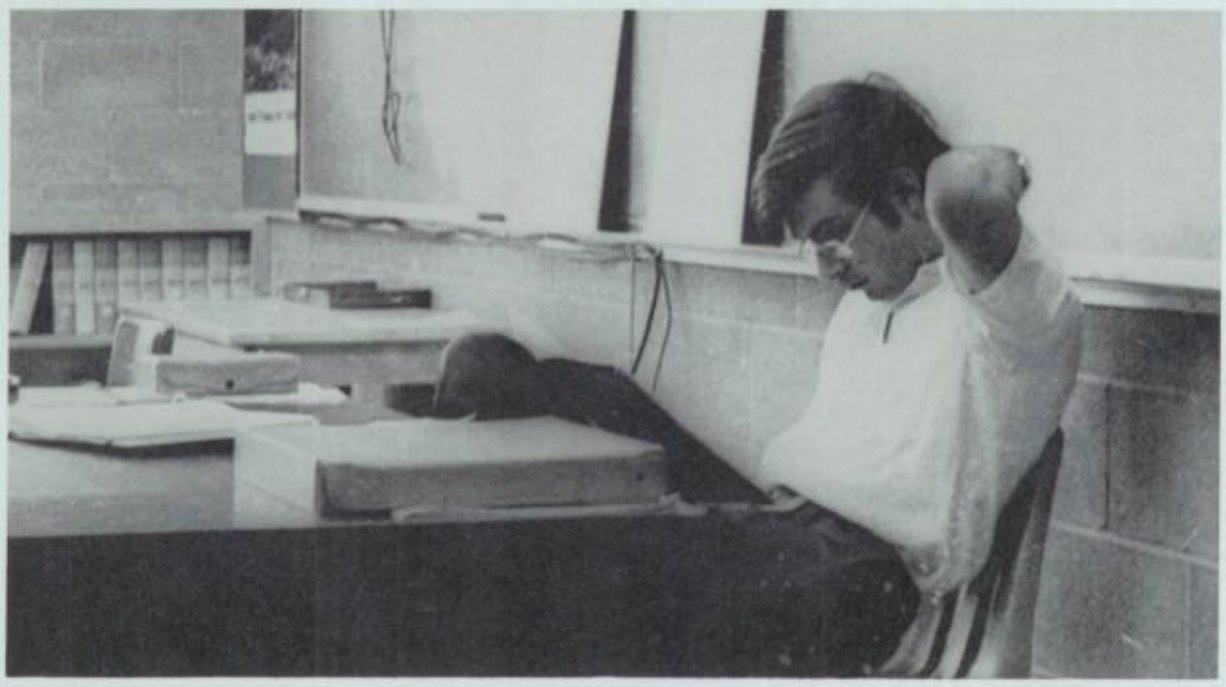
(clockwise from left) Sr. Ruth Grathwohl (Social Studies and Religion). Nick Bridger and Phil Sumner discuss the intracacies of the new Freshman curriculum. Doug Reiss lectures to his Law class. Donna Ericson jumps as her favorite typewriter tells her to get back to work. Jerry Killian discusses skeltons in his Anthropology class in a lively manner. Mike Nealon kicks back after a full day in the Print Shop.

Social Studies sees changes

New textbooks and class organization completely changed the Freshman and Sophomore social studies classes this year. Large groups of 120 students were held twice a week while small groups numbered only 15-20 students. The department also polled students in the Spring for elective preferences.







Math adapts to modular schedule

Eighty students filled 101 and 102 this year as the Math Department experimented with large group instruction in Algebra and Geometry. Math I-II was team taught for freshmen and sophomores. Bro. Jerome Gorg worked in the Math Resource Center which is always open to help students out of class.

Creative Arts finds new home

Cramped quarters were overcome as the Creative Arts Department moved into its new center in the old Faculty Lounge. Squeezed into the new area were Dave Adams' wood shop and copper enameling classes, as well as Celia Angam's sewing and weaving classes. The cafeteria kitchen was also taken over for co-ed cooking classes.

Susie,

Remember our Softball team it was the best. We were the runnerup but at least we had the most spirit. And now you are in my gym class. It was fun to. I hope we have more fun as we get older. Next year should be great. See you soon

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Thrashings of SF, SI highlight disappointing season

Upon entering the locker room on game night, you could feel the tension and anxiety in the air, see a group of athletes readying for battle, and hear the energetic music of Led Zeppelin blaring in the background. It seemed as though it was a replay of last year, but it wasn't meant to be. There was no one superstar to bowl over tacklers and run to glory for both himself and his teammates. Many new faces were in the familiar black and gold, and many lessons had to be learned.

Mitty has a great tradition of football excellence. Many people looked at the last two years and saw that the J.V.'s had won the league title both years and lost only once in 20 games in the process. This seemed to indicate that this year's varsity, a conglomerate of those two teams, had the league crown in the bag. Nevertheless, Coaches Ron DeMonner, Jim Williams, and Joe Conte were faced with the enormous task of replacing almost all of last year's starting offense and defense.

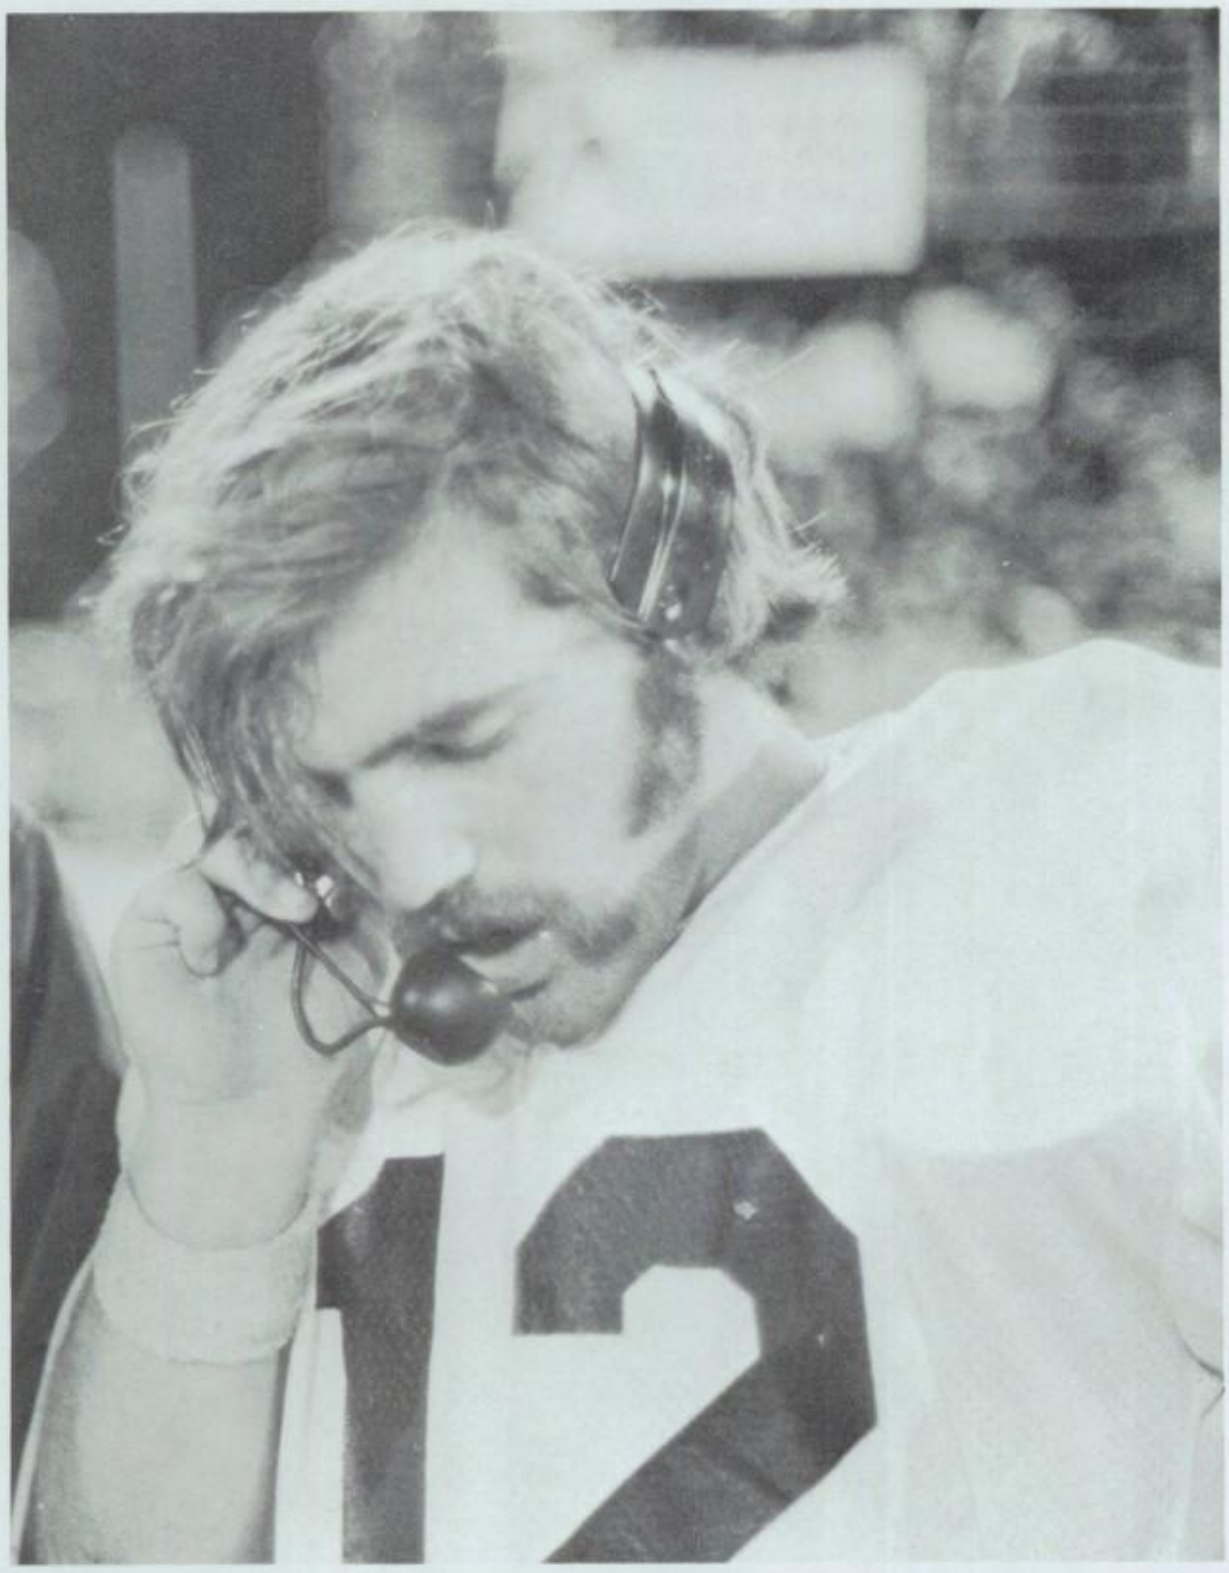
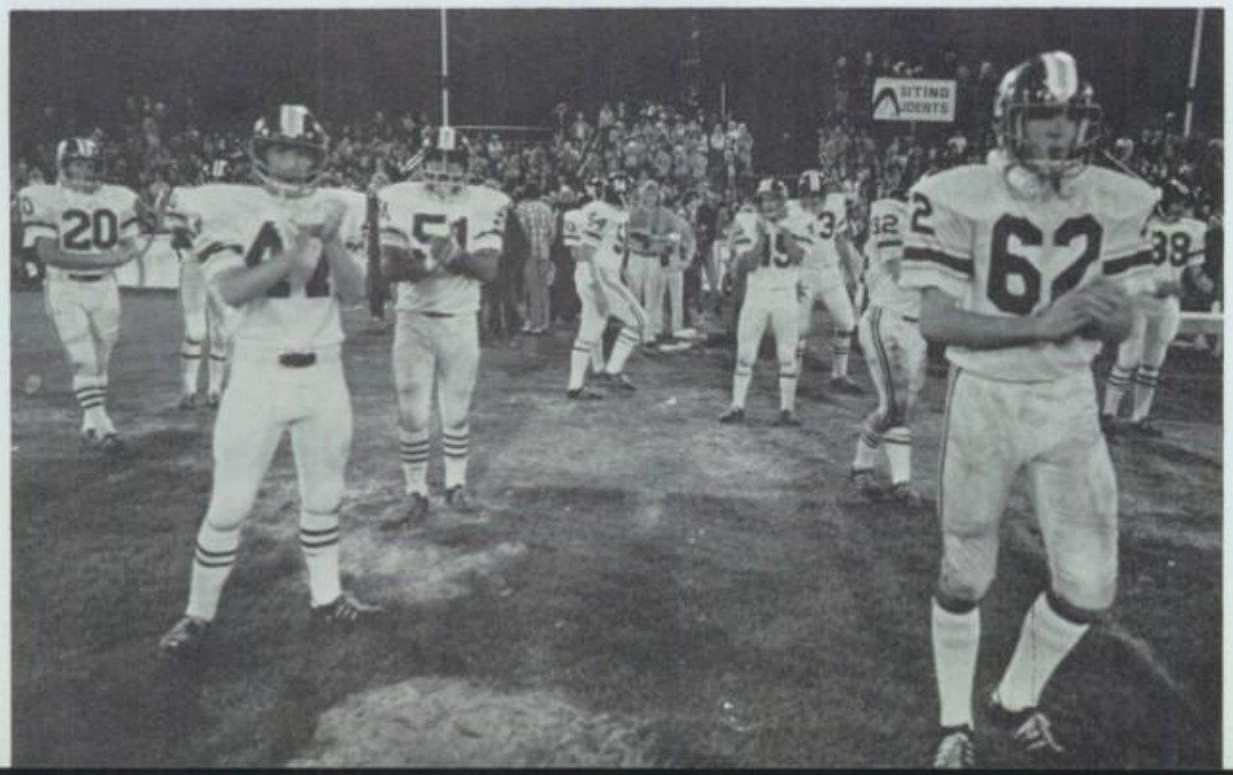
Bells shock Mitty in Homecoming bout, 30-0





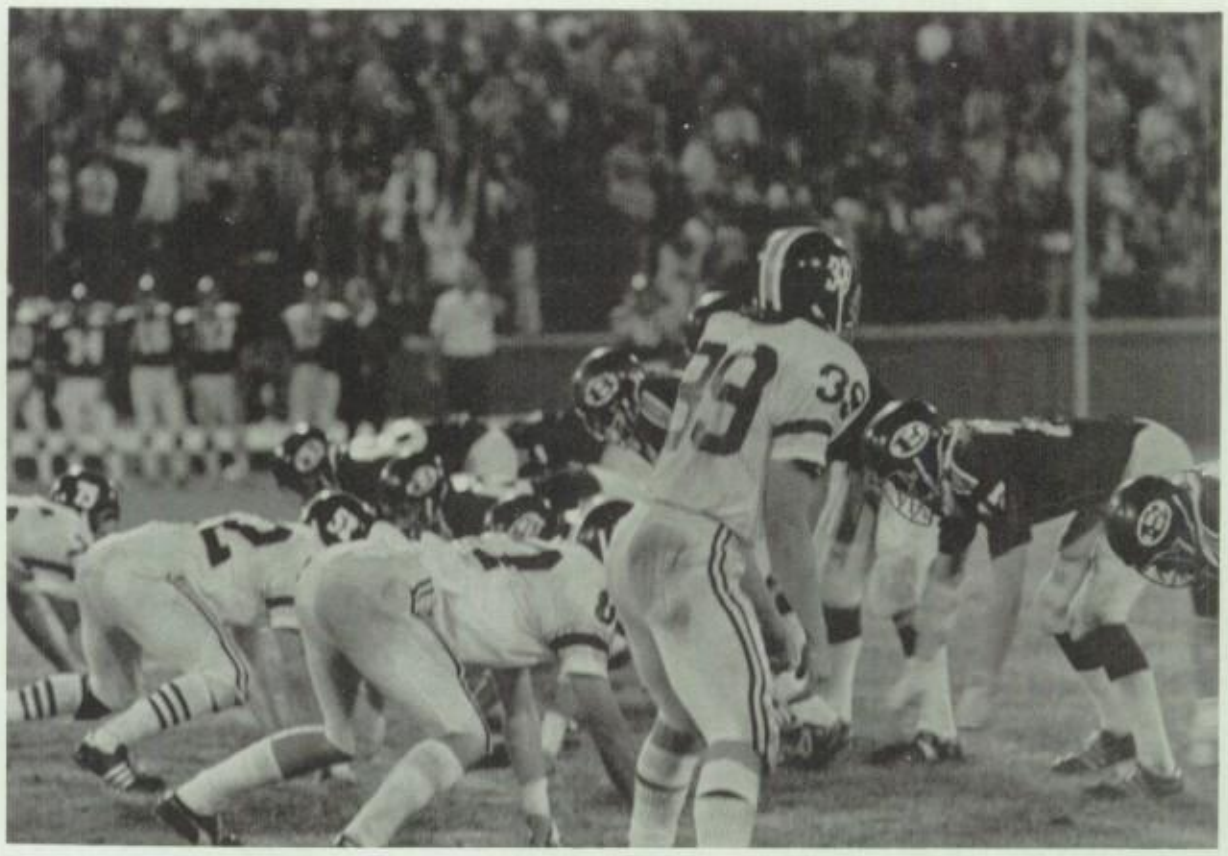
Holdover starters were center Pat Bucher and tight end Jeff Kahn on offense, and linebacker Shawn Sullivan on defense. This left 19 starters that had to be added. It turned out that most of these replacements would be juniors, which immediately raised the question of experience as a factor. Size certainly wasn't as the line averaged over 200 pounds. Still, there was a lot of mystery shrouding the team.

Last year's successes had brought some transfer students and tryouts to the team. Promising prospects were transfers Jim Vermilyea, a senior, and juniors Ed Emery, Alvin Cunningham, Rick Martinez, and new tryouts Ed Kelly, another junior, and seniors Pat O'Day and Dave Scadden. Yet another junior, Ron Clark, returned from Arkansas to rejoin the team.

Injuries decimated the ranks as eight players were hurt seriously, three of whom didn't play in one game this season. Others, like Alex Koontz and Clark, were hindered all season, but played thanks to miles of tape.

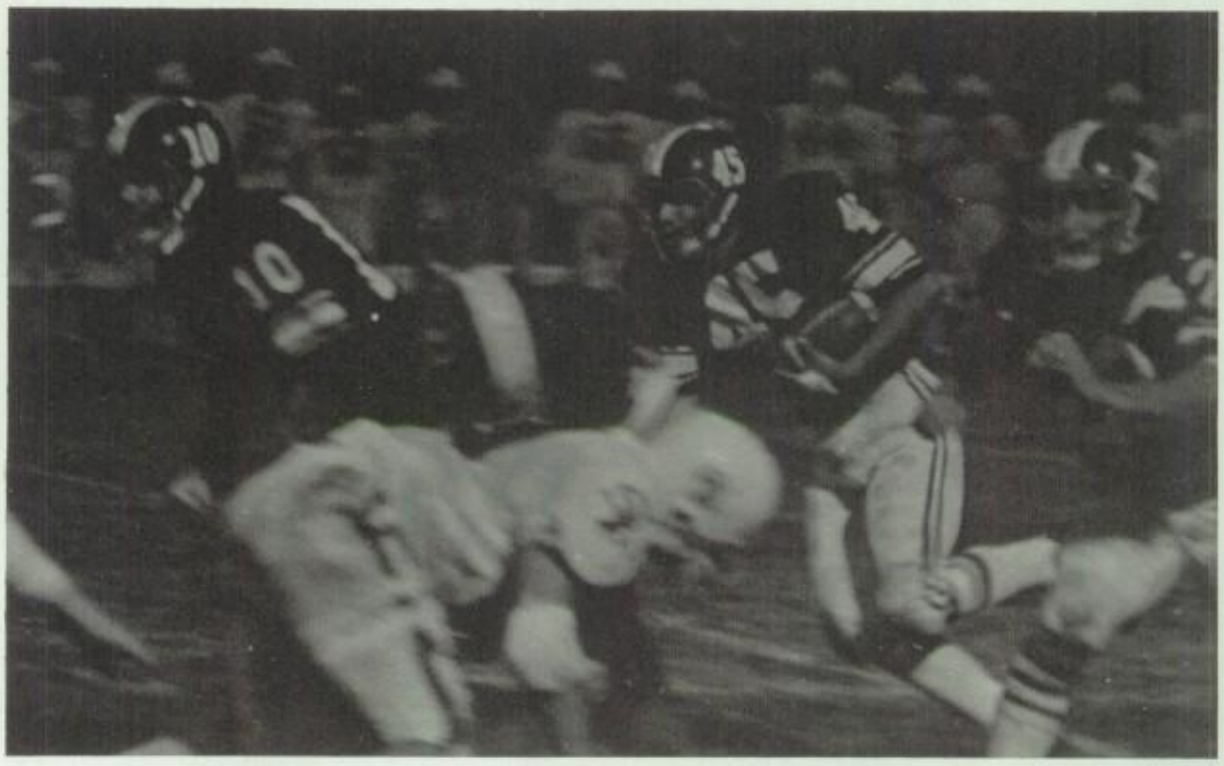
The season didn't work out to be as successful as had been hoped for. The Monarchs salvaged a 5-5 record overall, 3-3 in WCAL play. The most satisfying wins came over defending CCS king Awalt, St. Francis, and St. Ignatius, with heartbreaking losses against non-league Pioneer, Bellarmine, and Riordan.

In their WCAL opener, Mitty faced a tough St. Ignatius squad with a strong passing attack. The Monarch gridders rose to the challenge and subdued the Wildcats 17-6. Alex Koontz, Joe Garvey, and Bill Taylor led the ground game, while Shawn Sullivan and Mike Hough played tough on defense.



The next week, the team was psyched up for the homecoming game opposite Bellarmine for the league lead. All the psyching up in the world wouldn't have helped, as the Bells stunned the Monarchs by a 30-0 tally.

Coach DeMonner said later that "they (Bellarmine) played better and we did not play well at all." Mitty played them tough in the first half and trailed only 6-0. But the Bells scored two touchdowns late in the game to insure the victory.



The undefeated Riordan Crusaders were the next test scheduled. The Monarchs were ready for this one after the humiliation against Bellarmine. They led most of the game until the Crusaders scored to tie it up at 13-13 with about five minutes left. Mitty couldn't move the ball and was forced to punt, but a bad snap gave Riordan a chance to win. They then kicked a field goal with about a minute left to bury the Monarchs, 16-13. Joe Garvey was effective in leading the Monarch offense, giving to Koontz many times. Shawn Sullivan, Jerry Guiterrez and John Trusso led a fired-up defense.

The enusing game against St. Francis, was probably the best of the season. The crucial play occurred when Eric Swenson latched onto a 63-yard bomb from Joe Garvey. This left the ball on the three yard line, from which Koontz scored.

They never trailed again and emerged victorious, 14-13. St. Francis fell short on a 50-yard field goal attempt at the game's end. Lance Antonicic played well on defense, as did Shawn Sullivan.

All-leaguers this year were Alex Koontz as a defensive back, which Coach DeMonner stated was "a courtesy award due to the fine running back talent in the league," Stew Fine as a downlineman; and Shawn Sullivan as a linebacker. Shawn narrowly missed being voted league defensive Player of the Year.

Team awards were received by Pat Bucher (Most Valuable Lineman), Alex Koontz (Most Valuable Back), guard Ed Kelly (Most Improved Player), and Shawn Sullivan (MVP and Most Inspirational Player).

JV FOOTBALL

Consistent few back team effort

This year's J.V.'s will be remembered as a hard luck team. They finished the season with a 3-4-3 log, 1-3-2 in league play. Their record could very well have been 7-3, because they had a lot of talent, but last minute rallies killed the team on numerous occasions.

The team came on strong after a slow start (0-3), by winning their first league game against Sacred Heart and tying powerful St. Francis and massive Serra. They nearly went undefeated in non-league combat, beating Pioneer and Moreau and tying Awalt, before losing to a tough Sunnyvale team.

Coaches Pete Petrinovich, Dave Brown, and Mike Tiernan lauded the consistent play of backs Steve Yruegas, Kevin Moody, Ty Thurston, tackle Pat McArdle, and end Greg Dentino throughout the season.

This year's all leaguers were tackle Bocci Ponzini, tight end Greg Dentino, running back Kevin Moody, and tackle Pat McArdle. Individual awards went to Steve Yruegas (Coaches Award), Kevin Moody (Most Valuable Back), and Pat McArdle (Most Valuable Lineman).

FROSH FOOTBALL

The Frosh grid team endured a tough year, terminating their season with a win over Sacred Heart to give them a 1-6 record, 1-5 in the WCAL. They couldn't get the breaks, despite an abundance of size and talent, led by running back Rich Firato.

The coaching staff, consisting of Head Coach Steve Davis and Assistants Clark Vellis and Joe Lodge, cited the consistent play of several people who continually stood out during the season. Those mentioned were Joe Passarello, a tight end-defensive end, Doug Koontz, a running back-defensive back, and Mike Rogers, a lineman who was given the nickname "Jaws" by his teammates because of the way he "ate his opposition alive".

In the awards department, Doug Koontz was named Most Valuable Back and Mike Rogers was named Most Valuable Lineman.

The 1975 version of the girl's swim team once again lacked the great number of participants it takes to win a championship. While the team had only 20 members, opponents such as Awalt and Busher numbered from 50 to 60 girls.

In team competition the Monarchs came away with a disappointing 2-5 mark, while battling such power houses as Los Altos and Santa Clara. This record does not reflect the true quality of the team as five members reached the CCS finals.

Outstanding members included Mary Liebmann (50 free, 50 fly), Lori Ciabattari (100 back, 100 IM), Colette Conry (200 free, 200 IM), Jean Liebmann (50 fly), Nancy St. Croix (100 IM), and Barb Schallau (50 back). Individual varsity trophies went to Colette Conry (MVP), Kathie Contois (M.Imp.), and Christine Weiner (M.Ins.), while frosh-soph winners included Nancy St. Croix (MVP), and Kathy Czimber, who won both Most Improved and Most Inspirational.

CROSS COUNTRY

Runners excel despite lack of participants

Before the year started, this season promised to be a most successful one for the Mitty Cross Country team. With twelve team members, coach Mike Haniger looked forward with great enthusiasm to a schedule that included prestigious invitationals.

These hopes dwindled considerably when seven members quit the team. Although the five that remained had tremendous ability, they could only look forward to individual goals, rather than a strong team showing.

Each member excelled in two or more of the meets, but the standout and MVP was Pat Bryant. Bryant won his first five meets and was very successful in league competition, although he became ill before the WCAL finals, and much to the dissappointment of Coach Haniger, could not finish the race.

Other members performing well were Junior Dave Zanotti at Soquel (20th) and the league finals (16th), soph Neil Linney, 2nd in the Bellarmine dual and 3rd in league, and frosh Pat Ellis at the Blossom Hill Challenge (14th) and league finals (6th).

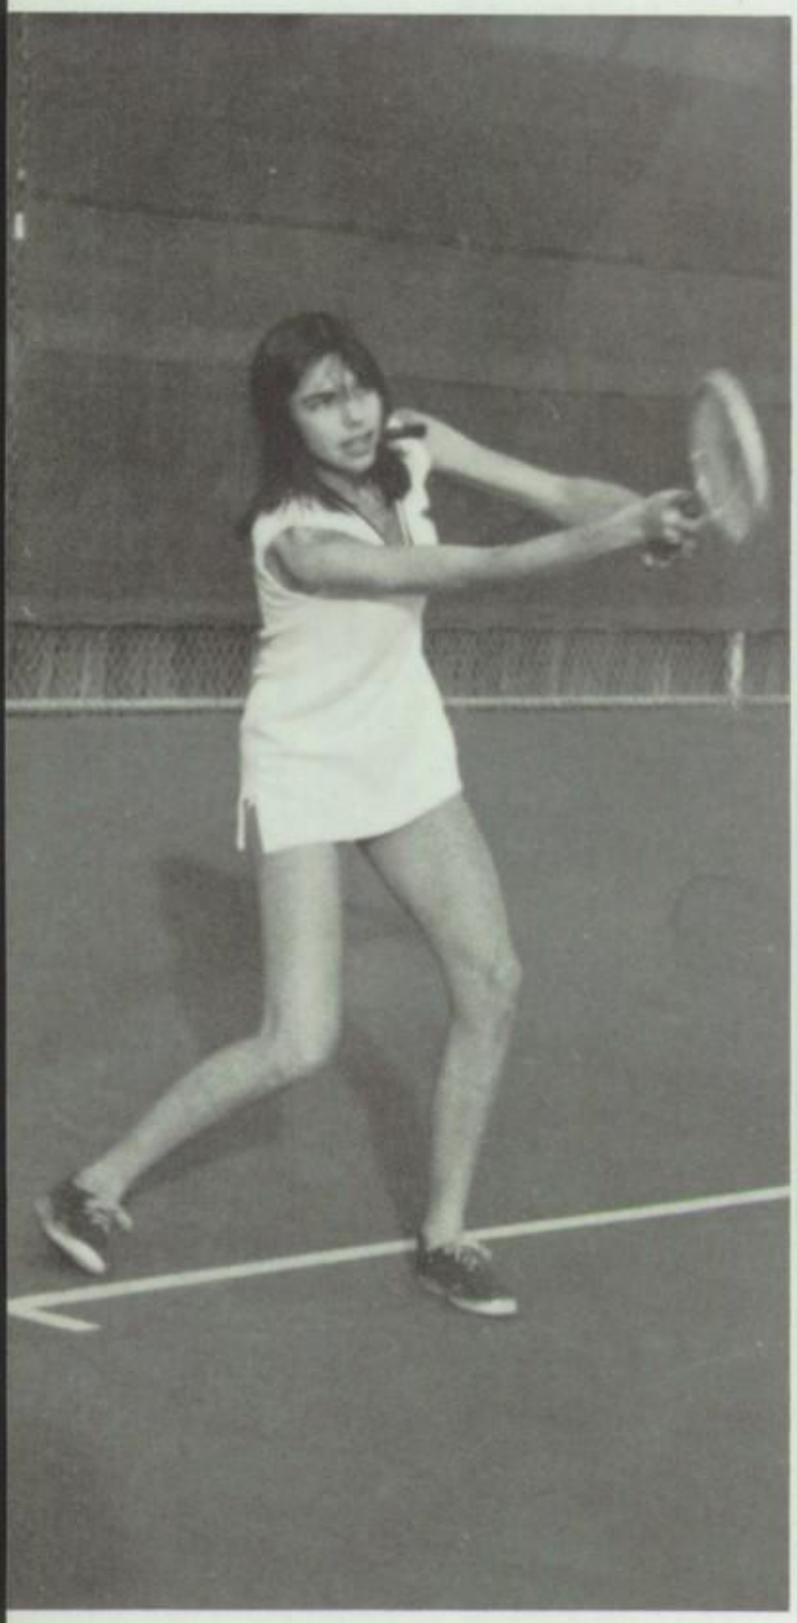
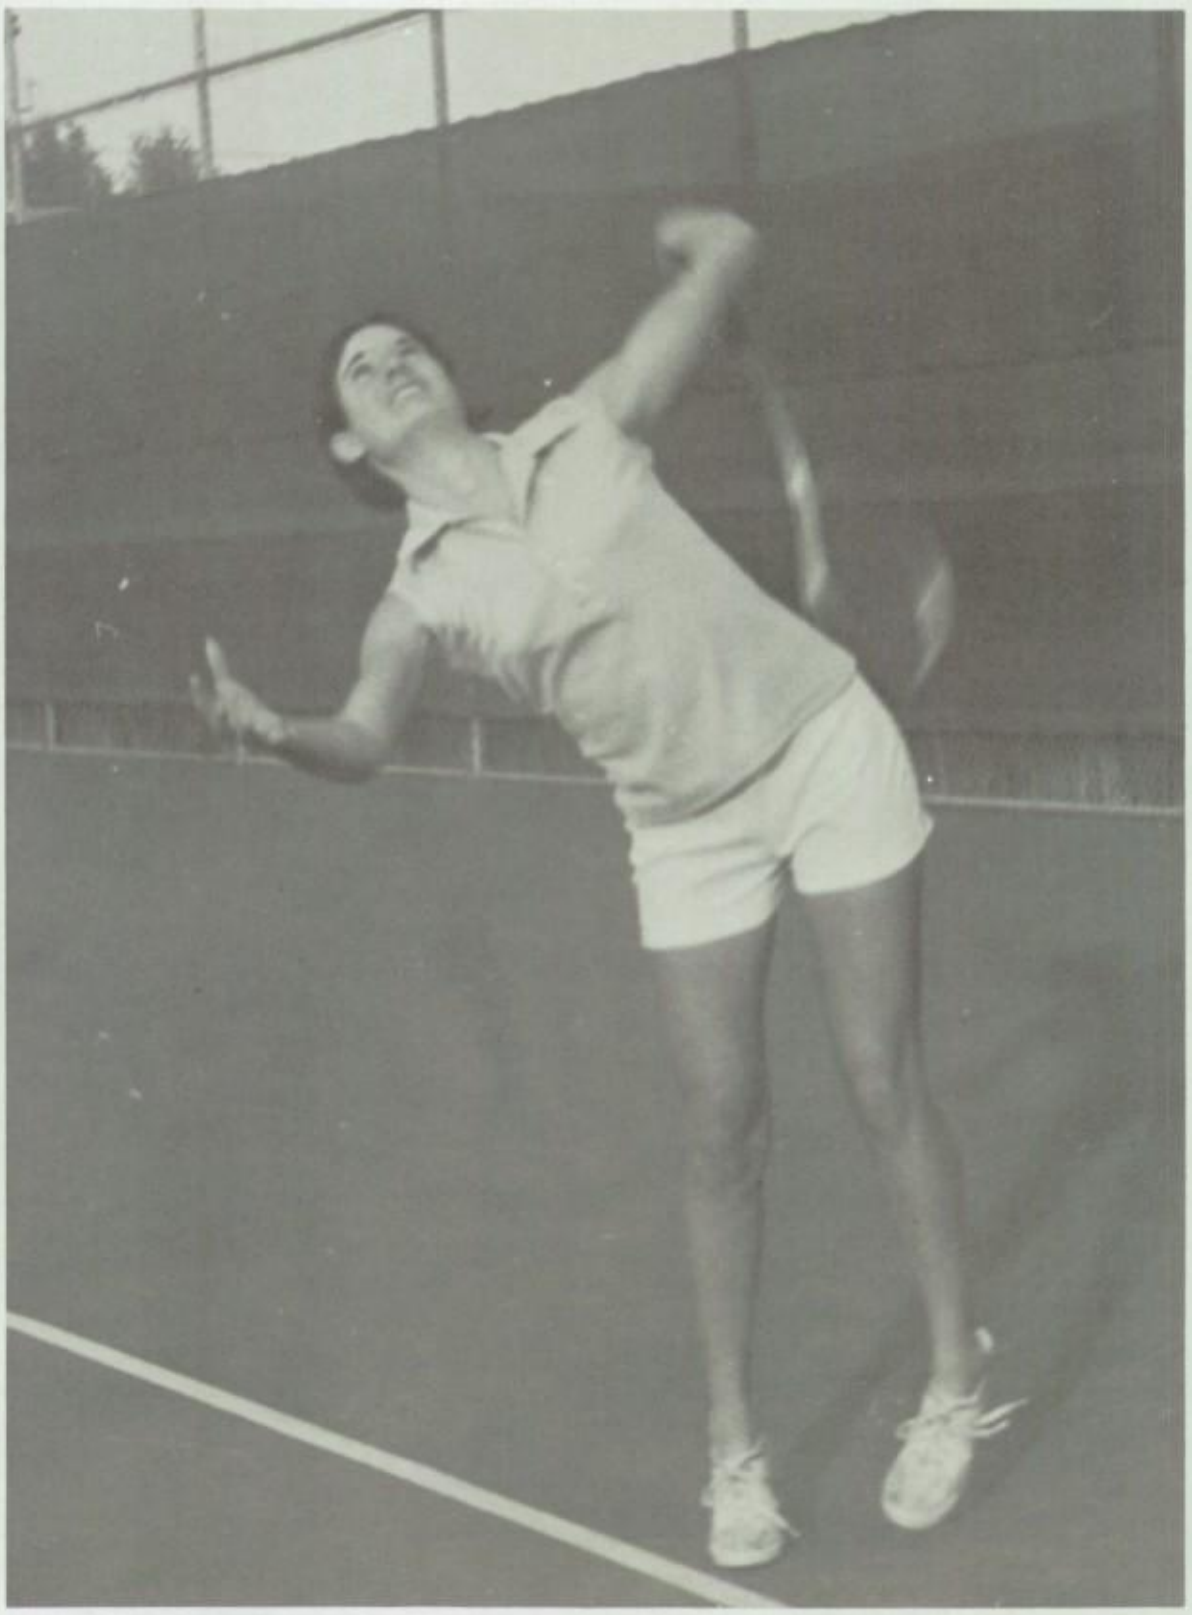
GIRLS' TENNIS

Numerous obstacles smash team's hopes





This year the girl's tennis team, coached by Ms. Donna Ericson, suffered through a very disappointing season. The team record slumped to 0-7-1, partially because of the small number of participants, and secondly because the team had no home courts on which to practice.

As was the case in several other less emphasized sports, the team has its outstanding members but not enough depth to take a strong team showing. Cathy Malone entered the league finals as the first singles player, and won her first match before bowing out. Melissa Prentice also enjoyed a good season as the second singles, but she, too, lost in the league finals.

Individual honors went to Cathy Malone (MVP), Patti Pollack (M.Imp.O, and Wendy Winchell (M.Ins.).

Most importantly, the girls had fun and can look to next season with high hopes because of the constant improvement being made by players such as Kathy Tully and Rosemary McCarthy.

VARSITY SOCCER

8-0-4 season earns team playoff berth

The Mitty Varsity Soccer Team continued in the tradition of previous Mitty soccer powerhouses. This year's team certainly was among the best in the C.C.S. They displayed outstanding balance, with an explosive offense and record-setting defense.

The year started slowly for the team as their record after the first four games was 1-1-2, extremely unusual for a Monarch team. However they came back strong, winning four straight before losing to a super Hoover of Fresno team, 3-1, in the California Holiday Soccer Tourney.

As league games continued, it was apparent that Mitty was a very talented team. The only problem was the team's tendency to tie, fighting out 0-0, and 1-1 deadlocks with both Riordan and S.I. The offense was not shut down against any other league opponents, as they scored an amazing 30 goals. Their most impressive outbreaks came at the expense of St. Francis (3-0, 4-0) and Sacred Heart (6-0, 4-0).

Experience proves important as Mitty faces tough season

Senior all leaguer Dan Muniz led the scoring with nine goals while Tim Miller (seven), Dev Rendler (four), and Dave Benton (four), followed closely. The defense was the teams most impressive point. Led by W.C.A.L. Defensive Player of the Year, Tom Beck, all leaguer Dave Campos, and goalie Lance Antonicic this unit allowed only three goals the entire year, which ties a league record.

Adroit juniors head into promising future

Making strong contributions were the outside fullback, Cam Ackerman and Bob Zamora. Others helping the team excel were Bob Joyce, Don Cogan, and Len Pugh. The team's season came to a sudden stop as they lost their first league game, 1-0, to Riordan in the second round of the league playoffs, thus eliminating them from any further competition. Previously the Bells had fallen to the Mitty boosters in devastating style 3-0 in the first round playoff game.

This year's JV soccer team had a successful season in the rough WCAL, recording a winning record. Coached by Mark Demling, this team proved it could score goals and play good defense. Chet Holly and Eric Kammersgaard proved to be excellent offensive players and the defense was sparked by Dave Lucas, George Romanowsky, and Paul Salmassy. The JV's played consistently throughout their league season and also fared well in the preseason, finishing high in their own Invitational.

The beginning of the '75-'76 season brought a new look to the Mitty freshman soccer program. Coach Mike McCloskey welcomed Kathy Lyden and Annette Weinert to practice. They went on to become the first successful female tryouts in Mitty soccer history. The team suffered through some hard times and struggled to a disappointing record. Bryan Joyce, Andy Weiner, and Pat Williams led an exciting team, and should prove to be successful in coming years on the JV and Varsity levels.

GIRLS' VARSITY

Rookies shoot for the heights

Excitement, laughter, and fun were the main characteristics of this year's girls basketball teams, coached by Sheryl Peterson. Unfortunately, success was not, as both the Varsity and JV finished with 2-6 records.

Winning Varsity efforts came against Santa Clara and Notre Dame, while the JV's scored victories against Los Altos and Santa Clara. Inexperience proved to be the Varsity's downfall as only three of the ten team members were upperclassmen. They were captain Melinda Formico, sister Michele Formico, and Patrice Ferron who, along with freshmen Lisa Pooley and Laura Garcia, proved to be outstanding.

High scorer of the team was Lisa Pooley, with 25 points in the game against Notre Dame. Awards went to Michele Formico for Most Valuable, Marie Groza for Most Improved, and Patrice Ferron for Most Inspirational.

The JV's, led by MVP Peggy Dill, Sandy Melton, and Diana Voss suffered several close losses which hurt their team record, but they did gain valuable experience from from the season. Captains Mari Culter and Jean Liebmann helped considerably as did Most Inspirational Betty Longinotti and Most Improved Mari Cutler.

Flu, inconsistent play, late rallies plague WCAL action

This year's Varsity Basketball Team had some bright spots but unfortunately the bad outnumbered the good. Mitty captured this year's Buchser Tournament with outstanding showings and resulting victories against Mt. Pleasant, Buchser, and Bellarmine for the championship. Team members John Kovaleski and Daryl Derus were awarded individual tourney honors, and the entire team looked strong. Competing in their own Mitty Classic, the Monarch cagers finished third, losing to Woodside and then destroying Menlo.

The league season did not go so well as anticipated by Coach Cory Russell as Mitty foiled to earn a berth in the league playoffs. They did finish fourth however, but S.F. received the league tourney spot because they had beaten a team above them in the standing.

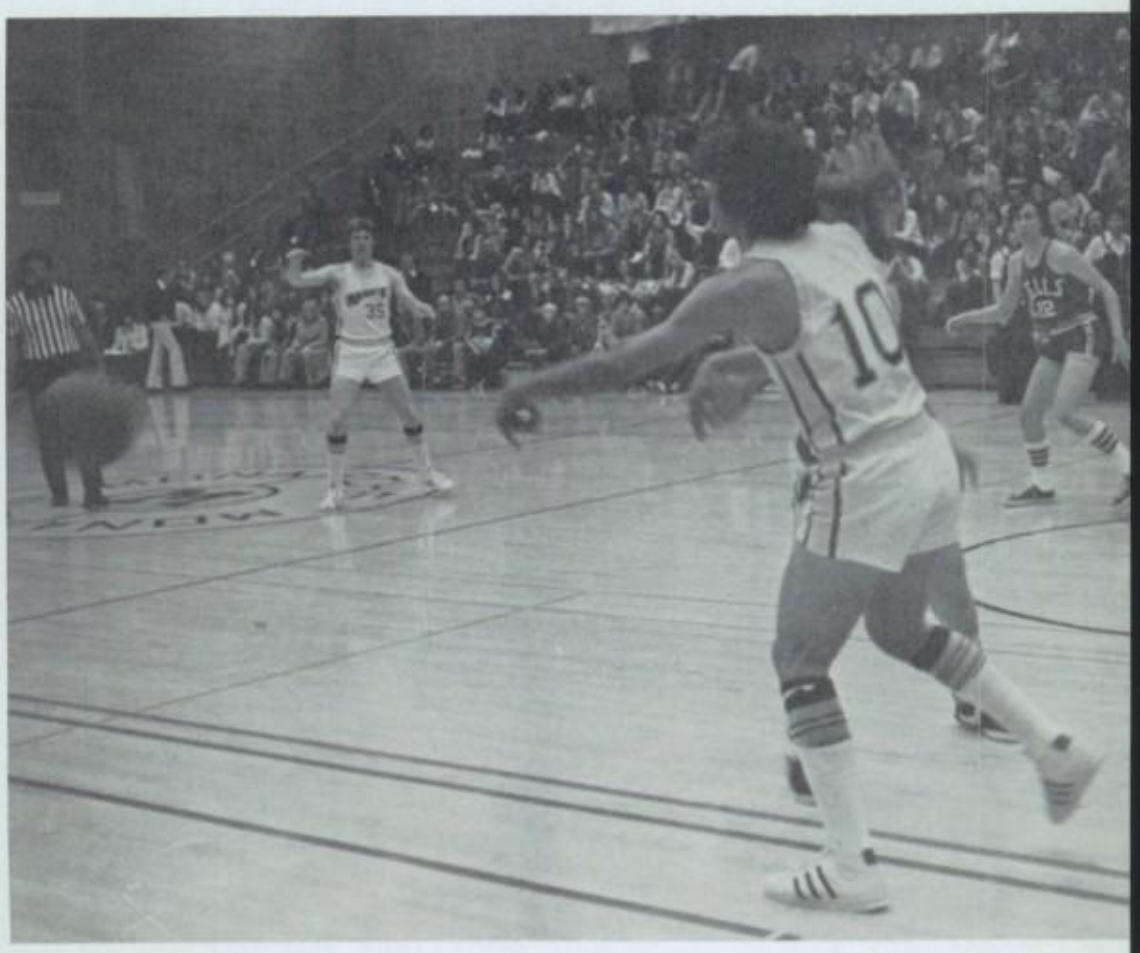
MONARCHS



Highlights of the league season were the dual thrashings of Sacred Heart and well deserved victories against Serra and St. Francis. The final league record of 4-8 and compiled record of 13-12 was not what the team had hoped for, but several close losses did not help the cause.

First year varsity cagers ponder plans for '77

Many players proved outstanding this season under second year coach Cory Russell, although the problem of the team was its lack of consistency. For a good part of the season three underclassmen, soph Dave Parrott and juniors John Kovaleski and Steve Bertoni were starting. These players along with Dan Yegge, Rich Turini, Dave Adams, Mick Cady, and Tom McTighe should form an excellent team next year. All of this year's seniors played well. They included Mike Dalton, Matt Marten, and Tim Murphy. Team captains Andy Pon and Daryl Derus also did their share and garnered MVP awards.

The Mitty Junior Varsity basketball squad had its problems this year, struggling through an 8-14 overall record.

The J.V.'s had five wins and five losses against non-league competition. League opponents, however, handed the Monarchs six losses in their first seven outings.

Mitty destroyed St. Francis by 20 points both times they played. The only other league win came against the Serra Padres.

The season wasn't a waste because, according to Varsity Coach Cory Russell, "The team learned to play hard. . . which is what they'll need on the varsity level."

Juniors Tom McTighe (11 points a game) and captain Matt Kucich led the J.V. attack along with sophomores Greg Dentino and Tim Prowse. Guard Tom McEffee worked himself into the starting line-up when Ken Rathjen became sick halfway through the year. Coach Russell feels that some of the J.V.'s will bolster next years varsity club.

The frosh basketball teams this season appeared to be much better than in year's past, even though their record didn't show it. Both the A's and B's, blessed with some good individual talent, finished the campaign with 5-11 records, 3-9 in WCAL encounters.

The A's had two good ball handlers in Al Gulla and Mike Yazalina, and a pair of fine centers in Rich Firato and Xavier De la Rocha. The B's had another fine pair in stellar guard Mark Faylor and high scoring forward Tye Ferdinandson. Though a fine time was had by all, the ball just didn't bounce right this year.

This year's Girls' Volleyball got off to a fast start with all three teams scoring decisive victories against Peterson. Although league play had not begun as of Yearbook deadline dates, the coaches, Ms. Donna Ericson, Maureen Ryan, and Lori Ghiorso and players felt confident about having a successful season. Varsity, JV, and the "C" team all possess talent. Returning veterans include Melinda Formico, Michelle Formico, Denise Mills, Joan Russell, and Maureen Sweeney.

Spring sports swung into action in mid-January with the start of baseball, swimming, and track practice. While the ball players and runners were centering their activities at Mitty, the swimmers were working out at the St. Lawrence pool.

Mitty's baseballers are setting some high goals for themselves this season. According to Varsity team captain Jeff Walsh, "The team is young but has a lot of talent and plans on taking the WCAL." Also returning from last year's squad are Chris Codiroli, Jeff Kahn, and Mark Lane.

Both the swimming and track teams lack depth this year, but possess experienced talent to strengthen their squads. In addition, the Mitty diving team has gained about six members to contribute valuable points in the swim meets. Strong individuals on the swim team are juniors Dave Barbour and John Miller, while the track team is placing its hopes on the abilities of Chris Johnson and Pat Bryant.

Spirit soars for Bellarmine battle

Mitty people got into the excitement of Spirit Week by participating in different contests held throughout the week. One of the most popular contests was slaughterball. Cupcake eating, egg toss, skateboard races, tug-of-war, as well as V.W. stuffing contests between divisions attracted many students. Each day was a different costume day with students sporting bells on Bell Day and black and gold on Friday. An assembly was held Friday to end the week with finals in contests and music from the band.

This year's activities were organized by the Senior Class under the leadership of President Steve Cameron and Vice-President Irene Casey.

Varsity Show spotlights school talent

This year's Varsity Show was a great success. Many fine acts were brought together and did a remarkable job.

Occurring on Thursday of Spirit Week, at the time when spirit was riding high, it featured for the most part musical performers, ranging from jazz to hard rock to down-home country.

The real treat came when the five finalists for the year's Homecoming Queen were announced.

This year, the Homecoming Queen competition was expanded to include as many nominees as could be found. Special Events Chairperson Michele La Rocca supervised and ran the whole thing. She ended up with 12 nominees from all social groups. They were screened by a panel made up of Student Government members and several teachers over a period of three days. The panel judged each one on several important criteria. Point totals determined the five finalists, and a student body vote elected the Queen. The 12 nominees were Judy Czeropski, Nanny Peters, Sharon Dale, Maureen Salvadore, Dianne Perretta, Joanne McDonald, Annette Naughten, Liz Soares, Debbie Obot, Denise La Rocca, Kathy Pooley, and Holly Bellandi. The five finalists honored at the Varsity Show were Soares, Obot, La Rocca, Pooley, and Bellandi. After that, Debbie Obot claimed the crown, which was presented at the half of the Homecoming game.

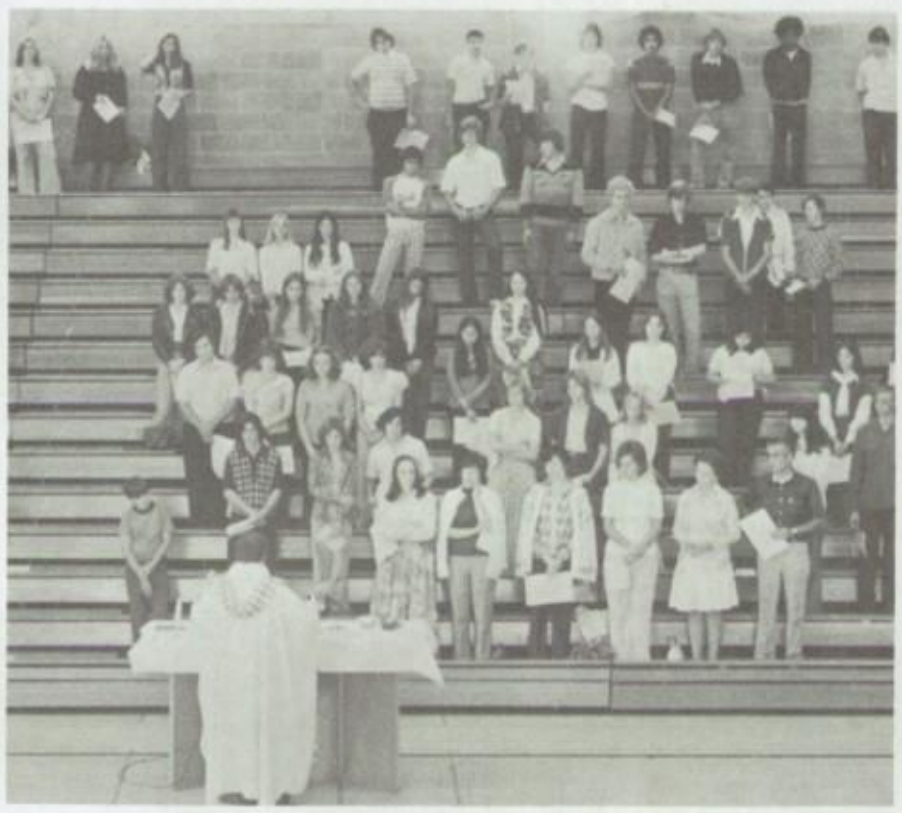
Masses stimulate community feeling

On many special holy days and such, masses were held in the gym or in the chapel, and were well accepted by the students who attended. Fr. Russi usually said them and the feeling of togetherness was inescapable.



(top left) Bro. John Wisecaver (left), Tim Flores, Cecile Glassy, Linda Chapman, and Frances Haynes Provide the music to sing by for one of the masses. (top right) Students and teachers alike pile into the gym to hear one of Fr. Russi's LONG sermons. (above left) Mr. Kevin McCarthy joins the group in song. (above) Fr. Russi convinces the congregation to stand up during mass and join in prayer.

From the Sierra Nevadas to Santa Cruz, Mitty students got together this year for the expanded Retreat Program. Traditional scripture retreats as well as focus on building Christian community were organized by Campus Ministry. Day retreats for freshmen and sophomores were held in the brother's house.

Students 'retreat' to Sierras, Santa Cruz

More than half the Mitty student body passed up an extended vacation and joined in a community Christmas celebration. Mass was celebrated in the cafeteria together with carols from the Music Department. Santa John Wisecaver tromped through the crowd distributing gift certificates and goodies.

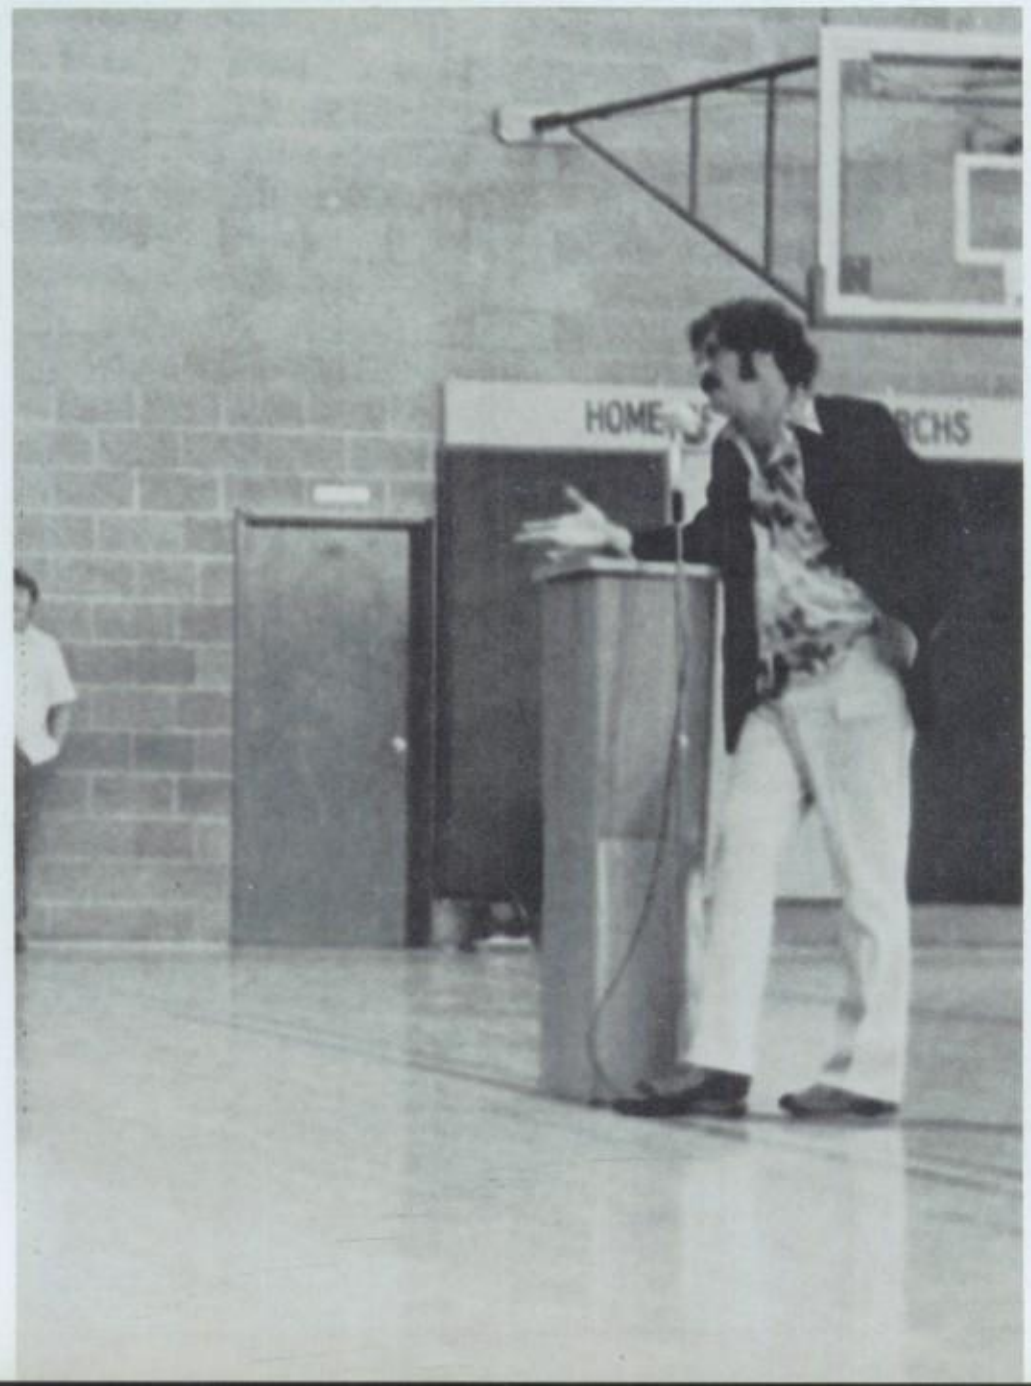
HOME OF THE MONARCHS

Assemblies break Friday routine

Amidst a chorus shrieks, yells, and wild grunts, students viewed the intracacies of Japanese marshal arts, as experts lunged at each other in the gym. Speeches by Santa Clara County Assemblyman John Vasconcellos, and San José Mayor Janet Grey Hayes, and novice Principal Fr. Jack Russi were other highlights of this year's assembly program, held on Fridays during Activity Mods. A glimpse of The Excalibur through slides and high-speed bike races rounded out the fare.



Mitty gets surprise snow job

A normally leisurely stroll along the end of 100 and 200 wings became a frenzied dash as students fired snowballs at anyone venturing within firing range. As teachers lectured to rows of empty seats, most students frolicked in a rare San Jose snowfall which turned Mitty white.

As the white stuff melted by 10 am, carloads of pleasure seeking people headed for the Santa Cruz Mountains and a day of partying in the snow.

The next day the snow disappeared as quickly as it had come and life returned to the usual mundane routine.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Hikers head for High Sierras

The Hiking Club, which is more of a "summer program" than a club, is led by the energetic Bro. Bill McCall. Last summer's trip drew a handful of hikers of among who were: Cathy Malone, Zoltan Szobozlay, Jim Latshaw, Erin Boulger, and Bro. Mike Nealon. The trip took place in the High Sierras at King's Canyon in Sequoia National Park.

"Green" staff fabricates enlarged yearbook

The yearbook staff underwent a radical change this year. Organization was introduced, but at times didn't seem to last very long. A class period and a place to work were new additions. Chaos reigned supreme in room 110 but red eyed section editors got everything together in the nick of time.

Advertising was a new addition to the book, along with a larger size, more pages, and an index.

Many ideas came out of this large group (most of them good ones), but training the staff was a gigantic hassle. Bryan Ramona and Jim Collins, the two editors, came back from a summer yearbook conference armed with ideas and determination to show 35 people how to use a pica ruler. It costs over $8,000 to put together the book; a variety of money making schemes made the accounts balance in the end.

An enlarged staff, changed format, and new moderator turned the O.J. Press upside down this year. Attempting to cover all aspects of student life, the staff concentrated on improving writing quality and including pictures.

The products of this new enthusiasm however raised administrative eyebrows and the O.J. ceased publication for a period of two months.

Editor Julie Abrams sees the return of many staffers next year promise an even better O.J.

Fine arts and service clubs emerge

French and Art clubs emphasize appreciation of the finer things in life and encourage students to widen their world. Ken Pearsall and Josie Mazor moderate l'Association Francaise while Michele McCarty moderates Art Club.

Mitty's "service" clubs perform many valuable functions for the school.

The Library Club's main purpose is to help Mrs. Lennon keep the library running. They check out books and try to keep ahead of the paper work.

The other group is Peer Counselors. This club consists of upperclassmen who are ready and able to help other students with any problems that may arise during the year.

This year a photography club was started at Mitty, with the help of Mark Leet a former Mitty graduate. The club's main purpose was taking pictures for the yearbook while trying to learn new techniques at the same time. The club traveled to Lake Tahoe for a week-end trip.

'. . . and the band plays on'

The Concert Band, under Frank Oddo's direction played very well this year. The band consists of 38 members. The concert band plays at various events such as dances for parents, and appearing at hospitals to play for the injured and sick. From the Concert Band comes the Pep Band.

Pep and Kazoo a-Go-Go bands ignite crowd spirit

The Pep Band and the Kazoo-A-Go-Go Band, are those dedicated folks that show up at every game, no matter where, to cheer on the team and to play music for the song-girls.

The Pep Band is a group of volunteer musicians. They are there because they want to be. The Pep Band is a branch of the Concert Band.

The Kazoo-A-Go-Go is a kazoo band that goes to all the games and gets 'ROWDY'. They are a bunch of guys that decided to do something about this unspirited school of ours. You can always see them at the games having a good time, and showing their school spirit.

Stage Band belts out jazz tunes

This year's edition of the Stage Band was probably the youngest in the school's history. They also were the first Stage Band to include a girl, Wanda Hooker. In the past, this would have met with instant reprisals and threats on Mr. Oddo's life because it was strictly taboo with the guys who enjoyed getting rowdy. They worked very hard, and, according to Oddo, made a lot of progress towards excellence.

(top) Stage Band members "take five." from left, row I - Mike Cano, Bob Zamora, Ralph Aguilera, Larry Domingues, Jerry Scholl. row II - Terry Wheatly (at the drums), Marc (Bonzo) Kohlman, Mark Burns, Dave Campos, Bob Gonzales. row III - Jim Schibler (at piano), Ken Johnson, Fred Friedman, Director/Frank Oddo, Mike Hinds, Tom Beck, Mike Palmonari, Bob Cerone, Tony Oddo, Andy Weiner, Dave Reik, Mike Verschuur, Wanda Hooker. (above) The Kazoo Band practices their Superman takeoff for an upcoming game.

Nature's beauty and splendor is God's gift to man.
Give thanks to the Lord, sing out His praise.

Cousin Susan,

Gee thats a nice name. I don't think this page is'nt going to be big enough for everything I have to say. Well I don't even know where to start. Maybe the beginning will be the best place. So here I go with melick.

O.K. Remember the first or second day of school. You started calling my name. I didn't even know who you were. I got mist have thought what a bitch I was. Sorry about that. Now were good friends. Well let me see

Editor's Insights

Deadlines, DEADLINES! We finally can forget the terror the mention of the word struck in our hearts. No More grease pencils, reduction wheels, and the everloving pica rulers.

But even through all the misery and suffering, we managed to put together the best book this school has ever seen and became like a 35-member family, especially when eating pizza at Me 'n Ed's on a check from Colorado (which probably bounced).

This was the first year of an advertising campaign, and Jim Collins was business editor. Jim did a fine job getting the Ads section together, at least when he and I weren't rapping about the good time we had at the Yearbook Conference in Santa Barbara or figuring out who we forgot to write to.

The rest of the Business department consisted of Judy Czeropski, Brad Clark, and Jim's brother Mike. Judy, our Homecoming Queen nominee, had to be the most enthusiastic staffer at the start. She did some excellent work as business manager. Brad was the "mellow man" of the crew, constantly assuring me that "everything is under control." no matter what shape it was in. Mike begged and pleaded with Clark to get in the class, and then hounded me to the cliff's edge to get an ad from my Dad.

Katie Munfrey utilized her unique artistic skills in constructing the opening section, the cover, and the division pages. She kept her sanity well considering most of the time she had no pictures to work with. When she did get pictures, I did the cropping and so forth so as to give her time to do the other stuff (cause she didn't understand the technique).

Brightening up the dull freshman section were Ginny Peters and Michele Salvadore. When choosing staff assignments, for the book, this dynamic duo volunteered without really knowing what they were getting into. Ginny, voted Best Personality by the seniors, could always get things to fall into place. Michele solemnly vowed that she wouldn't even go near a freshman again. After that she went back to utter silence.

Maureen Clarke and Leanne Castruita collaborated on the sophomore section. Whenever Mr. Clark would ask them to do something, they'd say, "O.K. Mr. Clark, we'll do it." But the instant they left the room they'd say, "Oh God, I don't want to do this." Maureen was so dedicated that she took the business department's receipt books to the beach for a weekend to check them. Leanne had a thing about sleeping through Yearbook class (and a few others I'll bet) or constantly talking about "Boyfriend of the Week." The night before the first deadline, a Sunday (Oh God!) I went to Maureen's to work with the sophomore twins 'til about 2:00 in the morning, when I went home to finish my work and let them finish theirs. We three stayed up all night, but it was fun while it lasted.

Mary Liebman, Chris Weiner, Pat McCarthy, and Cam Ackerman combined their expertise on the sports section. Mary and Chris were as unseparable as Siamese twins. They were locked in a constant battle with the photographers for the numerous pictures required for their section, when they weren't discussing the custom features of the hundreds of guys they've seen. Cam (an excellent soccer player), Pat (a baseball mainstay), and I wrote the copy. The day of the final deadline we got together and discovered that the dopy that was due we had barely started. We must have set a record for the speediest copy writing, and probably the sloppiest.

The excellent handiwork in the organizations section can be blamed wholly on the ingenuity of Nancy Hall and Tammy Miller. Nancy, an avid party fan like most of the staff, rearranged her ladder more times than she wishes to remember, and was known as "Bruiser" on the Powder Puff football team. Tammy, also a photographer (which came in handy), continually asked me, "Is being editor a hard job?" (what a silly question!) She also did the art work for this page and designed the mural in Room 110 along with painting the cover of Elton John's "Goodbye Yellow Brick Road" on her bedroom wall and giving Halloween parties where you play hid and seek in a cemetery.

Ann Kennedy, Judy Poe, Kim Woodman, and Dave Serna produced the fabulous senior section. Kim kept the guys on the staff enchanted by her great looks. Dave still believes that his theme, "KWEGO?" would have been the best, when he wasn't cracking jokes in class. Ann was my favorite. On the day of the final deadline we sat there trying to keep each other from losing our sanity while I helped her finish. Judy kept the other three in line and was very energetic when it came to going home. She also prodded us into stomping the pavement peddling Fun Fest tickets.

Our lone transfer student, Cindy Relfe, fabricated the activities section. She had more problems than Nixon during Watergate, but managed to get the help she needed when she worked up the nerve to say anything.

Dave Menacho used his talents on the faculty and curriculum section. He will serve as business editor next year, which he said "will be great so I don't have to do this hard work" (that's what he thinks!).

Maria Giannini worked with Nancy Hall on the junior section. Maria was always the first one out of the room when class was done. Her and Maureen did a lot of work together (such as partying) cutting school, etc.).

The staff owes their sanity to Marcia Loher. As photo coordinator, she did as much meditating between the photographers and the staff as Henry Kissinger did in the Middle East. She was always poking me in class or telling me she was going to quit. Our photographers were Matt Cary, Geraldine Battaglia, Yvette Stefanini, Kevin Ryan, Rob King, Dan Kemper, Les Leonardo, Chris Pugh, and Jim Joyce. Jim had the incredible knack of being invisible when someone was looking for him. Chris was our latecomer who made his mark quickly by being deluged with photo requests. Matt was the "class clown". Yvette was forced to drive all over Northern California taking pictures and went to every concert she could. Kevin held out from the numerous favors asked by the sports editors. Rob helped with the curriculum section and was continually mistaken for Dan (even though he lacked about a foot of Dan's height). Dan always did his work, it was just a question of how late it was. Les made the year's worst blunder when he went to the Philippines for a month in December and took Ann's negatives with him. Geraldine was the most cooperative and we couldn't have done it without her. She stayed the day before the final deadline until 11:00 P.M. and came back at 5:00 the next morning to work in the darkroom, otherwise known as "the closet". She lived on coffee all year and kept us sane with her good disposition and silly jokes.

The most tedious and mindless job on the staff was the index, handled by Monica Allen. This was the Excalibur's first index, and she had 1000 index cards to sort through and write page numbers on. She was the quietest staff member, but the most dedicated. A million thanks to you, Monica!

Last, but not least, there was Mike Clark, who suffered through numerous burglaries of his home and the theft of his Psych. course materials. He was more than just a moderator, he was a friend and dedicated himself to us. Any extra special thanks to Mike, our rep. J. R. Myers, all the patrons, My Mom who typed this, and everyone else, without whom this book would not even exist. THANK GOD THE ORDEAL IS ENDED!!

Susan,

I'm glad I met you this year and I hope we will get to know each other better, we had some fun together and hope there will be more to come in the future days. I hope I will see you this summer and I'm very disappointed that you didn't want to go with me to the Jr. Sm. Ball. oh Hell!! well we will party some more, and party. alright.

See ya around.

love

Diane

Susan,
It was fun
